THE COCKERELL MURDER CASE.

The Dead Man's Wife and Father, Accused of the Crime, Captured and Lodged in Saluda Jail.

A telephone message from Saluda brought information that Sheriff Rhoden and his deputy, on Sunday morning, succeeded in capturing S. H. Banks and his daughter, Sallie Cockerell, who were, last Friday, charged by the coroner's jury with the killing of Smith Cockerell two weeks ago. They were in the act of boarding the six o'clock train for Augusta when taken into custody. Banks carried a gun and a huge Smith & Wesson pistol, and his daughter had a large knife.

Both are now in jail. Banks stated that he had no idea of trying to escape, but wanted to get his daughter off until bail could be secured.

JAMES D. NANCE CAMP.

Regular Meeting—Election of Members—Monument Square Turned Over To the Camp.

The regular meeting of James D. Nance Camp was held in the court house yesterday. Commandant J. W. Gary presided.

The following new members were elected: W. L. Waters, Co. F, 14th regiment; W. W. Griffin, Co. D, 13th regiment; Chas. E. Plunkett, Co. D, 13th regiment; Henry T. Fellers, Co. A, 4th Battalion State Reserves.

On "delegate and one alternate were elected" to meet like delegates from other camps to fix a permanent place for State reunion. Adjutant O. L. Schumpert with M. M. Harris as alternate were appointed.

The following communication was read which explains itself:

Whereas, the James D. Nance Camp, No. 336, U. C. V., at a recent meeting passed the following resolution, to-wit: "Resolved, that our adjutant be requested to confer with the county board of commissioners and get their permission to enclose with a neat iron railing that part of the public square below the court house known as 'Monument Square,' and to induce said board to turn over to said camp and to the local chapter of the daughters of the confederacy the square so enclosed, in order that this monument to our sacred dead may receive, from loving and sympathetic hands, that care and attention which it so eminently deserves."

And whereas, this board heartily agrees and concurs with the idea expressed in said resolution.

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the county board of commissioners in meeting assembled, that the public square below the court house, known as "Monument Square," be, and the same is hereby, turned over to the said James D. Nance camp and the local chapter of the daughters of the confederacy for the uses and purposes mentioned in said resolution.

John M. Schumpert, Supervisor.

G. S. Moore, County Commissioner.

Benj. Halfacre, County Commissioner.

Newberry, S. C., October 3, 1903.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

On the Death of Samuel Allen Hawkins By His Classmates.

Resolved, That we, the Class of 1901 of Newberry College, assembling for the first time in the last year of our college course, meet under the shadow of a dark sorrow.

One of our members is absent, and we miss him. He was a faithful friend, a good student, a manly man. We will miss him in the class-room, and the whole school will miss him in the athletic field and in all college life. His leadership in college work and sports was the prophecy of the place he would have attained and the success he would have won in later years.

Familiar as we are with death, and often as the summons which he bears comes to those around us, we are startled and shocked as one after another of the children of our Heavenly Father goes hence. Particularly is this so when we are called away who are in the strong ties of such college men together. The cry of the announcement on the scene of the announcement, "Samuel Allen Hawkins," was heard by all. The cry of the announcement, "Samuel Allen Hawkins," was heard by all. The cry of the announcement, "Samuel Allen Hawkins," was heard by all.

Mr. Haynesworth, August, lawyers of the Green, In are sure will make a continuing judgment.

Mrs. E. J. Alsbrooks and little son, of McColl, S. C., is on a visit to the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. N. N. Burton in West End.

Mr. Ed. L. Richie, of North Carolina, is on a visit to Mr. T. B. Epting, of the county. Both of them will return this week to the Lutheran theological seminary at Mt. Pleasant, S. C.

VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

The hot and dry and dusty weather continues.

There were no sales yesterday by the officers of court.

Mr. R. G. Fellers, of Columbia, spent Sunday at his home in Newberry.

Yesterday was salesday but it was so much like summer that very few people came to town.

The Newberry Roller Mill and eight acres was bid in for the estate of Dr. D. L. Boozer on yesterday.

Dr. Julian H. Fair of Spartanburg has accepted a position with the pharmacy of Dr. W. E. Pelham.

Sunday school at the First Baptist church has been changed to 4 p. m., and night services were resumed last Sunday night.

Cedar Grove Camp Woodman of the World was organized at Kinards on Friday night, with seventeen members, by District Organizer W. B. Wise.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church, are looking forward in the near future to their annual Chrysanthemum Fair. The exact date will be decided later.

The Southern Railway has made a slight change in the schedule of the midday passenger train, by which the train from Columbia arrives at 1.23 p. m., and the train from Greenville at 12.50 p. m. The trains meet at Prosperity.

Mr. G. J. Williams was in the city yesterday. He is endeavoring to organize the retail grocers of South Carolina. A meeting will be held in the council chamber on Friday night at 8.30 for the purpose of organizing the retail grocers of Newberry. The purpose is to get some legislation which will protect them against dead beats and also to co-operate in securing better freight rates and in a general way to protect their interests.

Home Loan & Trust Co.

The stockholders of the Home Loan and Trust Company met at Council Chamber on last Thursday evening for the purpose of organization. A majority of the stock subscribed was represented either in person or by proxy. Mr. W. H. Wallace was chosen chairman of the meeting and E. H. Aull secretary.

By-laws were adopted and the following board of directors was elected:

Geo. S. Mower, F. N. Martin, J. E. Norwood, W. G. Houseal, B. C. Matthews, Van Smith, J. A. Blackwelder, E. H. Aull, and J. A. Burton.

It is the desire of the stockholders to secure a few more shares of stock for this series and if there is any one who desires some stock in this company he can secure the same up to the 15th by calling on any one of the directors.

MEETING OF THE BOARD.

The directors met on Friday afternoon and organized by the election of Geo. S. Mower, President; J. E. Norwood, Vice-President; E. H. Aull, Secretary and Treasurer; F. L. Bynum, Attorney. A committee of three, consisting of F. N. Martin, E. H. Aull and B. C. Matthews, was appointed to look after the details of securing the charter.

The Secretary and Treasurer was instructed to proceed to collect one-half of the first monthly instalment.

The bond of the secretary-treasurer was fixed at $2,000 and the United States Guaranty and Casualty Co., was approved as surety on the bond.

The President appointed the following committees provided by the by-laws: Valuation—B. C. Matthews, J. A. Burton, Van Smith. Finance—F. N. Martin, W. G. Houseal, J. A. Burton.

Found Dead.

John Counts, colored, was found dead on Sunday evening in front of Mr. R. C. Maybin's residence. At about 7.30 o'clock Mr. Maybin's attention was attracted by some one groaning. He went out to ask if any one needed assistance. Counts was found dead. The coroner was summoned and reached a verdict of death from natural causes. Counts lived on Edward Scholtz's place. At the inquest his mother testified that he had been taking medicine for "blind staggers."

Get the Best For the Asking.

When you order a sack of patent flour from your grocer, do not tell him to send you "a sack of good flour," but tell him to send you a sack of "Clifton," because "Clifton" is the best patent. Every sack is sold with this guarantee, and if it does not prove as represented, your money will be refunded. "Clifton" is an all-round flour, and is as good for cake and pastry as light rolls and biscuit.
